The car with registration number 1297, an Irish registration plate.

No interior pictures, but a very well worthwhile project for the enthusiast.

The car is for sale at £19,995 from the car dealer who owns this. I suggest that there is no chance of achieving this price for a rotten car.

It got to around £9000 on eBay, which shows that prices are rising even for the most unloved of the post-war DB Lagondas.
